

Welcome to the DBH Training Institute Learning Management System (LMS)

For those of you who are unfamiliar with the term LMS, it's a software program for the administration, documentation, tracking and reporting of training, both in the classroom and online.

Think of the LMS as a "one-stop-shop" for registration of both classroom and online courses and your own personal history of training attendance and certificates, which can be printed at your discretion. The LMS also contains hundreds of courses available for you to take online, many of which are pre-approved for continuing education.
